NEW ERA FOR THE CAPS

Change is in the air for our Vancouver Whitecaps FC as we head into the 2025 season with a new head coach and big ambitions. After parting ways with Vanni Sartini, the club has put its trust in Jesper Sørensen, a coach bringing new ideas and high expectations.

Sørensen arrives with the challenge of implementing his tactics quickly, as the 'Caps juggle MLS play with international competition right from the start. His success will depend on how fast the squad adapts to his style and whether he can get the best out of key players like Ryan Gauld, Brian White, and new signing Jayden Nelson.

As supporters, we'll be watching closely. How will this new era take shape? Will the Whitecaps take a step forward under Sørensen? One thing is for sure, for better or worse, it's going to be different.

The 'Caps 2025 season starts fast!

The Whitecaps are diving straight into a packed schedule with high-stakes matches right from the start. A Cascadia rivalry match, a Concacaf Champions Cup showdown, and a huge home opener against the defending MLS Cup champs, there's no time to warm up.

This early stretch will push the squad to its limits, testing Sørensen's tactics, the chemistry and depth of the team. This off season we saw only one new signing, we have a lot of ground to cover. With big matches in multiple competitions, every game matters.

WE'RE ON DISCORD

Exciting news! The Sisters have joined the rest of the Canadian soccer community and have created a space for our discussions on Discord, our new home for all things soccer.

We're choosing a platform that aligns with our values, moving away from Musk and Zuckerberg-owned spaces to stand with the communities we care about and support.

Some of the other groups you'll find on Discord are RCB, The Rise SG, The Northern Lights, and the Lake Side Boys, along with many more.

We are here to help you make the transition. Please reach out with any questions you have.

This will be the place for

- ⚽ Match chats & player updates
- 🗣️ Front office & team news
